

The Decision-making Process

The Situation:

You are in Grade 8 and your brother has taken you to your first "big" party. After you get there your brother takes off and you are left by yourself. You watch what is going on for a while and decide that it is time to go home. Just when you are getting ready to leave, some older guys come up to you and say "Hey kid, how would you like to sniff something with us? Your brother doesn't have to know. It will be our little secret". You know the facts on sniffing and you really do not want to do it. What do you do???

What are the facts:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
