
Ranking Values

A. Rank these values in the order of their importance to you. If any values that you consider important are missing from this list, you may add them and rank them.

Value	Rank Order (1 to --)
1. To be brave	_____
2. To share	_____
3. To show good judgment	_____
4. To show self-control	_____
5. To be dependable	_____
6. To be easy to get along with	_____
7. To work hard towards my goals	_____
8. To make full use of my potential and capabilities	_____
9. To be honest	_____
10. To make my own decisions	_____
11. To treat others as I would want to be treated	_____
12. To understand myself and others	_____
13. To be kind to others	_____
14. To get the things I enjoy most	_____
15. To be happy	_____
16. To be accepted	_____
17. _____	_____
18. _____	_____
19. _____	_____
20. _____	_____

Ranking Values (continued)

B. List the five values that are most important to you and briefly explain why each one is important.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Source: One step at a time, Educational and Career Explorations, Intermediate Division, Ministry of Education, Ontario, 1984.

Grade 9 Module: Self-Awareness
Handout No. 4 "Ranking Values"