

Sample Role Sheet for the Recorder: Group Assessment

Enter the date, your initials, and your group's comments in the appropriate row of the chart. Your comments should include:

- two things that the group did well to function effectively
- one or two things that the group could do to improve its performance.

Discuss these points with the group before recording them. Consider the following questions.

Did everyone:

- offer sincere contributions?
- get a turn to contribute?
- encourage others to participate?
- give reasons and examples from the book to support ideas?
- listen carefully to others' contributions and ideas?
- ask questions for clarification?
- take turns in each group role?
- participate in making group decisions?
